Belinda Osborne of Peacock Millinery is an award-winning Australian headwear designer. Renowned for designs that embody a structural beauty and contemporary elegance, the Peacock Millinery brand is modern, innovative, and known amongst racegoers as one of the top labels for exquisite and unique headwear, with clients featuring in Vogue, The Age, 7RacingStyle, and other fashion reporting media.

A fashion forward reputation, experience in headwear styling, and interpretation of current trends see Belinda designing headwear for clients all over the world from her studio in Darwin, Northern Territory.

As one of the Northern Territory's most highly regarded milliners, Belinda is proud to have been awarded milliner of choice for the 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022 and 2023 Darwin Cup Carnival Ambassador styling program.

Excellence in craftsmanship, with a creative and innovative approach to headwear design has established Belinda as a force in millinery, winning many awards and accolades including the coveted MYER Fashions on the Field Millinery Award in 2021, and Millinery Australia Design Award in 2022.

Belinda has also been honoured to be invited to showcase at various coveted events over the years such as Northern Territory Fashion Week and London Hat Week Exhibition.

"I hope you enjoy the following selection of Peacock Millinery designs just as much as I enjoyed creating them."
